

It Pays to be a Member

If you are a professional interested in Training and Development, there is no better value than membership in ASTD. For less than $100 a year, you rub shoulders with experts from across the region –individuals with diverse experience in everything from using new technology to managing change. 2008 opened with two outstanding speakers. More are to come. Plan ahead to update your knowledge, challenge your thinking, and built your network as you explore topics of vital importance to your organization and career. As you do, enjoy the ever-expanding benefits of membership in the local chapter:

- Network with some of KC's finest
- Learn from experts across our region
- Serve the community around you
- Prepare for CPLP certification – and have fun doing it!
- Take advantage of this year's national training event; be certified in Career Development and Talent Management
- Use our job center to find talent or a job
- Use our website to connect to diverse and valuable resources, keeping your knowledge up-to-date
